

We need strong, articulate Conservatives

I met Ilario at his first primary debate here in Wilmington. It was great watching him blow the other candidates out of the water. When it came to the issues that concerned the voters in 2010, I was impressed that this war fighter was also so well-spoken and had a keen understanding of each issue. He knows exactly where he stands and he can tell you why. Not only that, but he won't back down from his beliefs just because someone criticizes or disagrees with him. He is able to defend his beliefs and he doesn't waver. We need that so badly in Washington today! How many politicians, "public servants" can you think of that don't wilt and fall all over themselves when they're criticized for speaking their beliefs? You could count them on one hand. And that's just about words, not even to speak of walking your talk! Ilario walks his talk and that's why I know he will continue to be a fighter for what's right, this time in the political sphere. He wants to protect and abide by the Constitution, to help turn this country back around to prosperity, strength and security. Ilario Pantano is going to do great things!
